

DARUL ULOOM ISLAMIC HIGH SCHOOL	Join a rapidly improving and high achieving Islamic high school to develop your skills as a competent teacher with a highly successful leadership team acknowledged by Ofsted as meeting all the independent school standards during its recent inspection in November 2016. Ofsted recognised the school's '..recently formed leadership team have rapidly improved key aspects of the school's provision. All those in leadership positions now demonstrate good skills and knowledge, reflected in the improvement in teaching and learning inspectors found during the inspection.' A COMPETITIVE SALARY FOR THE RIGHT CANDIDATE.
Post Title:	Position: Hifz and Alimi Teachers
Purpose:	At Darul Uloom you will teach the memorisation of the Holy Qur'an and / or the noble Islamic sciences including Arabic (Nahwa and Sarf), Fiqh, Aqeedah, Tafsir, Hadith to pupils aged 11 to 16. You will also gain immense reward for your hereafter, inshaAllaah. The best candidate must be fluent in the English language and will be able to effectively support, observe and record the progress of students through well planned lessons with the aim of ensuring a healthy culture of learning constantly at mind resulting in creating future leaders. Developments within teaching and learning practices of memorising Quran and the Islamic sciences, new resources and methods must be addressed and attended to. This role also involves liaising and networking with other professionals, parents and carers, both informally and formally. Day-to-day activities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • preparing and delivering lessons to KS3/KS4 pupils • marking work, giving appropriate feedback and maintaining records of pupils' progress and development • researching new topic areas, maintaining up-to-date subject knowledge, and devising and writing new curriculum materials • selecting and using a range of different learning resources • preparing pupils for qualifications and external examinations • managing pupil behaviour in the classroom and on school premises, and applying appropriate and effective measures in cases of misbehaviour • undertaking pastoral duties, such as taking on the role of form tutor, and supporting pupils on an individual basis through academic or personal difficulties • communicating with parents and carers over pupils' progress and participating in departmental meetings, parents' evenings and whole school training events • liaising with other professionals, such as learning mentors, careers advisers, educational psychologists and education welfare officers • supervising and supporting as teaching assistants for secular subjects • participating in and organising extracurricular activities, such as outings, social activities and sporting events • undergoing regular observations and participating in regular in-service training (INSET) as part of continuing professional development (CPD)
Reporting to:	Head teacher, Deputy Head, Head of Madrassah
Working time:	Part time/Full time
Other duties:	To play a full part in the life of the Madrasah
Qualifications:	A Hafiz ul Quran and / or an Alim course graduate/ Degree in the Islamic Sciences

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The post will subject to an Enhanced Disclosure application to the Disclosure and Barring services and check against the ISA barred list for children.

Call 0121 688 6507 or send CV/Covering Letter to duhead@darululoom.org.uk or deputy.head@darululoom.org.uk